

The Australian Data Archive (ADA) provides a national service for the collection and preservation of digital research data. ADA disseminates this data for secondary analysis by academic researchers and other users.

The archive is based in the ANU Centre for Social Research and Methods (CSRM) at The Australian National University (ANU).

Here are just some of the reasons why it's beneficial to deposit data with us:

- Your data will be stored and stewarded safely.
- You can increase your citations.
- Impact of your research will be far more reaching.
- Supports multidisciplinary and multi-institutional research.

Get in touch if you'd like to deposit or access data through ADA!
